One-Month Online Transplant Coordinators' Professional Certificate Course

Sujatha Suriyamoorthi
MOHAN Foundation, India

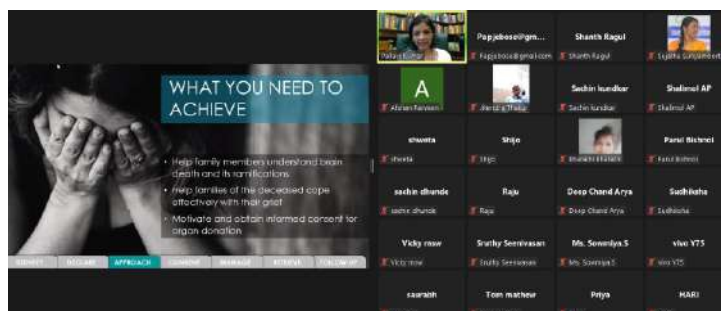

The one-month online 'Transplant Coordination Professional Certificate' course was successfully conducted in the months of March, April and June 2022 respectively. The participants were from all across India as well as from Nepal. As part of the course, webinars were conducted through the Zoom platform where participants were given the opportunity to interact with experienced transplant coordinators across the country. A total of 91 candidates completed the course in these three batches and received their certificates.
